

Resolution on Establishing the IAPH Women's Forum Scholarship Adopted on June 4, 2015 at the 29th IAPH World Ports Conference in Hamburg, Germany

WHEREAS, the International Association of Ports and Harbors (IAPH) resolved to create the IAPH Women's Forum and to create an annual scholarship intended for the training of women in ports at its Board of Directors meeting in Jerusalem, Israel, May 2012,

WHEREAS, the IAPH aspires to advance the status of women in the port industry, especially at IAPH member ports, by providing assistance for their continued education and training;

NOW, THEREFORE, the IAPH meeting at its Plenary on 4 June in Hamburg resolves that:

1. It will create the IAPH Women's Forum Scholarship consisting of two types of scholarship programs intended for young female staff employed at IAPH member ports to be implemented in the next term of 2015-2017:
 - 1) the Women's Forum Biennial Training Scholarship to enable them to attend advanced port training program overseas; and
 - 2) the Women's Forum Annual Meeting Scholarship to enable them to attend IAPH Conference and exchange information and experience at the IAPH Women's Forum.
2. An ad-hoc committee known as the Women's Forum Scholarship Committee will be established, including the Chair of the IAPH Women's Forum, to oversee the program and select the awardees in consultation with the Communications and Community Relations Committee administering IAPH Training Program Scholarship.
